The diagram illustrates a large magenta rectangle labeled 'A' with a width of 17 and a height of 16. To its left, there are two smaller rectangles: a green rectangle labeled 'B' (width 6, height 16) on top and a red rectangle labeled 'C' (width 10, height 16) on the bottom. To the right of rectangle 'A' is a small green rectangle labeled 'D' (width 3, height 4). Surrounding these rectangles are several yellow boxes containing numbers: a box with '4' is above rectangle 'B'; a box with '2' is to the right of rectangle 'B'; a box with '5' is to the right of rectangle 'A'; a box with '3' is below rectangle 'D'; and a box with '4' is below rectangle 'C'.
