The diagram illustrates a geometric arrangement of squares and rectangles. A central cluster consists of several colored regions: a green square (top-left) labeled 'G' with side lengths 14, 18, and 24; a pink square (middle-left) labeled 'A' with side lengths 24, 24, and 24; a red square (middle-right) labeled 'D' with side lengths 24, 24, and 28; a blue square (bottom-left) labeled 'F' with side lengths 24, 24, and 20; a green square (top-right) labeled 'C' with side lengths 18, 20, and 3; and a small green square (bottom-right) labeled 'E' with side lengths 4, 6, and 4. Various other numerical labels are present: 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 9, 14, 18, 20, 24, 28. Small yellow boxes containing the numbers 2, 3, 4, and 5 are positioned around the central arrangement.
